Tom Rook

Tom joined 11 New Square as Senior Clerk in March 2019 and has overall responsibility for the clerking of the practices of all members of chambers, and developing client relationships and client service. Tom has a wealth of clerking experience gained in both common law and specialist sets, and in advance of joining 11 New Square held a senior role for over 10 years at Francis Taylor Building (FTB).

Tom has been recognised in the directories as 'outstanding' and 'making the relationship between chambers and clients all the more enjoyable'. He was also recommended for his high levels of client service. Tom has also completed the ILM level 5 Diploma in Leadership and Management for barristers clerks.
